"Signorie"

Tiferno è l'antico nome di Città di Castello che sorse in epoca romana lungo le rive dell'alto percorso del Tevere, nella parte più settentrionale dell'Umbria, ai confini con la Toscana e le Marche. La città è sempre stata un centro molto operoso e fra le varie attività, fiorente era quella della lavorazione del mobile che veniva pensato e prodotto nei "fondi" dei vari vicoli e vicoletti del centro. Quando la Tiferno Mobili nacque verso la fine degli anni '70, con il nome di Tiferno Artigianato Rustico di Giulio Chiarioni, ebbe per prima l'idea di andare a riscoprire questa antica eredità produttiva del mobile, ripensandola e ritrasformandola per adattarsi alle esigenze del nostro tempo cercando però di mantenere vivi gli antichi ed artigianali processi produttivi.

Tiferno is the ancient name of Città di Castello that arose during the Roman period along the shores of the Upper Tiber River, in the northern part of Umbria, next to the boundaries of Tuscany and Marche. The town has always been a very industrious center and amongst various other activities, the making of furniture flourished in the many alleys and alleyways in the center of Città di Castello, where it was designed and produced.

When Tiferno Mobili was created towards the end of the 70's, by Giulio Chiarioni under the name of Tiferno Artigianato Rustico, it was with an idea to rediscover this ancient inherited form of producing furniture, by rethinking and retransforming itself to adapt to the requirements of present day needs and keeping alive the ancient handicraft methods of producing furniture.
